ORDER:-

In the Annual Confidential Report for the year 2000-2001 (for the period from 20.11.2000 to 29.03.2001) in respect of Sri Y. Surya Prasad, Regional Joint Commissioner of Labour, the Commissioner of Labour (i.e., Head of the Department) has recorded the following adverse remarks:

“There were serious complaints against the officer while he worked as the RJCL, Visakhapatnam and in-charge DCL, Eluru. He was then transferred as Welfare Commissioner, APWB, Hyderabad. The detailed enquiry is now pending with the COI. The performance of the officer is rated as ‘Poor’ (during the period under report).”

2. The above said adverse remarks have been communicated to Sri Y. Surya Prasad, Joint Commissioner of Labour to make a representation against the same. In the reference first read above, Sri Y. Surya Prasad, Joint Commissioner of Labour has submitted his explanation, among others, that the complaints referred to in the adverse remarks are based on the pseudonymous telegrams emanated on May 26th, 2001 from Vijayawada and on May 24th, 2001 from Hyderabad. They are not relevant to the period under report i.e., from November 2000 to March 2001 for which A.C.R. was written, that his transfer as Welfare Commissioner, APWB is politically motivated and that his performance has never been rated as poor by any of his superiors in the past 15 years service. He has requested to expunge the adverse remarks.
